You may be the most flexible, easy going, and well adjusted person around, but even the most rational types get upset when they dash into their favorite store to grab a few quick items and find the shelves rearranged so they can't locate a thing. At that moment, stable people become paranoid and silently accuse store keepers of some fiendish desire to drive them crazy. Some of the calmest people I know go all to pieces if their morning newspaper "hides" the funnies or their favorite columnist. They question "editorial judgement" and are sure it is a devious plan to ruin their day.

And few of us are completely tolerant of people with good intentions who take it on themselves to rearrange an area of our private domain. It doesn't matter if it is a loving wife moving our favorite chair, a helpful hubby straightening out our dresser or desk, or a thoughtful mother-in-law reorganizing our cupboards, we all spring just a little. We are all creatures of habit to some degree who consider some changes interference and are threatened by others.

Circle Jan. 29 on the calendar right now for a fun-filled evening for the entire family! The James Family Band will perform in the WCS high school gym and you won't want to miss it. They play a wide variety of music from blue grass to some Irish tunes and if room allows and the audience is willing, there may even be some square dancing and even some sing-a-longs. All proceeds will be donated to the WCS sixth grade for its trip to Washington, D.C. in June. Tickets are $2.00 a person or $5.00 for the family. Bring grandma, grandpa, and the kids for an evening of family entertainment you often wish for but seldom find.

Friends Unlimited not only has interesting weekly meetings but is also involved in many other activities during the year. In November, 14 members went to the Ice Castles and out to lunch. Their next excursion was to Niagara Falls to see the Festival of Lights. At Christmas, members took point-to-point to nursing home and they are talking about putting on another dance. Meetings are Wednesdays, at 7:30 p.m. in St. Joseph's School.

There will be a spaghetti dinner at the school this Friday with serving starting at 5 p.m. Stay to cheer the girl's basketball team take on rival Dansville at 6:30 p.m. followed by the boys' team at 8:30 p.m. Good food, good sports, and good family fun.

St. Josephs will host a Faith Enrichment Series on Sacraments Saturday, Jan. 30, and Saturday, Feb. 6, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the school. Mike and Theresa Stanley from Ithaca will present the series. Bring a brown bag lunch. Coffee will be provided.

Anne Wegman from the Diocesan Office of Youth Ministry will review the revised and updated course of study, Education in Love, a program in family life and Christian sexuality, also at St. Joseph's School at 7 p.m. Feb. 2 for parents. She is a member of the Catholic Conference of New York State on Family Life and was a member of the revision Committee.

Marleen Mark presented a program on "Study Skills" for the January meeting of the Wayland Family School Association at the school last night. The discussion concerned what students ought to be doing and how parents could help. The association meets the second Wednesday of the month and all parents are invited to attend any or all meetings. They also publish a newsletter.

Call Harry Palmer at 728-5529 for information about the 55 Alive/Mature Driving course at the Wayland Fire Hall on the 19th and 21st of this month from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. The cost is $10 and it is the AARP course for drivers over 50 years old.

The Golden Agers meet today (the 14th) in St. Paul's. Doors open at 3 p.m. and a covered dish dinner is served at 5:30 p.m. Ray Horan will show slides of the Hawaiian Islands. New members are welcome.

Iola Tweddell, Louita Brooks, and Marilyn Robinson have been appointed to the nominating committee for officers of St. Paul's Women's Fellowship for 1988. Election will take place at a meeting Feb. 9 at 7 p.m. New members are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman have returned from visiting their son Robert Jr. and family in St. Paul, Minn. They had a lovely time and left just before the devastating winter storms hit that part of the country.
